TRAGIC DEATH

STUNS OREGONOFFICES IN SALEM ARE CRIPPLED BY TRIPLE LOSS

Salem, Ore., Oct. 31 (AP)—A stunned Oregon slowly prepared today for a funeral in its governor and two other top officials, killed in a hunting trip plane crash.

Services were planned for all three in the chamber of the State House of Representatives here Monday at 1:30 p. m. (PST).

The bodies of Governor Earl Snell, Secretary of State Robert S. Farrell Jr., and State Senate President Marshall Connert were to be brought here from the mountainous southern Oregon wilderness where their plane crashed Tuesday night. The crash also killed the pilot, Cliff Hogue.

Families of the crash victims also planned individual services. Arrangements have not been completed.

It was the most tragic plane crash in Oregon history, and the state, slowly recovering from its shock, promised a funeral in keeping.

It will be a state-wide day of mourning. Officials of the state's largest city, Portland, said all offices would be closed. Other cities were following suit. The National and State Guards went into mourning and flags throughout the state were at half-mast.

No Secretary of State

The new governor, John Hubert Hall, 48, Portland attorney, elevated from speaker of the House of Representatives, took over, but many of the state's offices were paralyzed by the triple death.

It was impossible to obtain drivers' licenses, automobile licenses or numerous other certificates. These functions, carried on under the secretary of state's supervision, will not be resumed until new Governor Hall names a successor to Farrell, probably next week.

There was confusion also over the operation of the liquor control commission, the highway, welfare and unemployment commissions, but they took up business on the recommendation of the state attorney general's office.

The crash left on the state board

Sales Tax Reserve
To Meet School Aid
Blocked By Auditor

Lansing, Oct. 31 (AP)—State fiscal officers' plans to put aside a monthly portion of sales tax income to meet the mandatory school aid appropriation to schools was rejected today by Auditor General Muri K. Aten.

Aten said he decided he had no legal authority to set up a special reserve for that purpose unless authorized by the legislature. He said Governor Sigler might be asked to request such approval next week at the special legislative session.

SLOWDOWN AIDS LOOTERS

Okayama, Japan, Oct. 31 (AP)—Police arrested a locomotive engineer today for a "slowdown" which had nothing to do with strikes. They said he slowed his freight train while accomplices looted the boxcars.

Swindler Says Wife
Embezzled $107,000
To Pay His Victims

New York, Oct. 31 (AP)—William Jacobs, 47-year-old Detroit bartender, was arrested here last night on a fugitive warrant and police said he admitted using $107,000 his wife is accused of embezzling from the American Express Company to repay victims of his own swindles.

Seized in a Manhattan bath establishment, Jacobs had only $10 with him, police said. A surety company operative traced him to New York on a long trail through Canada.

Detroit police said Jacobs disappeared several weeks ago. The same night his wife, Lillian, was arrested and charged with larceny in the alleged embezzlement of $107,000 from the Express company's Detroit office where she had been employed 29 years.

Detectives here quoted Jacobs as saying his wife gave him the money which he used to repay victims of his swindles.

The detectives said Jacobs had been involved in several swindles in Michigan, most of them based on pretenses that he could obtain automobiles despite all difficulties and that he could assure issuance of liquor licenses.

He obtained from $1,500 to $3,000 from his victims on such swindles, the detectives said, and urged his wife to obtain enough money to enable him to make restitution when those he allegedly had fleeced began to file complaints against him.

Police said a total of 30 such swindles are charged against him thus far. His wife is charged with making out money drafts, police said.

Detroit Prosecutor James H. McNally said Mrs. Jacobs admitted taking the money because of "love for my husband." When arrested, she said she was "in love with him."

MOVIEDOM QUIZ

About Hollywood Reds
Fail To Materialize

BY WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

Washington, Oct. 31 (AP)—The promised disclosures of a definite link between movieland and Russian atom bomb spying must wait the next phase of the Reds-in-Hollywood investigation.

This will come in "due time," Chairman Thomas (R-N.J.) pledged today as his house committee on un-American activities ended two weeks of public hearings with an air of suspense not unlike an old-fashioned serial thriller.

The movie industry claimed meanwhile that the "abrupt termination" of the current inquiry "is a complete vindication of our position."

Paul V. McNutt, special counsel for the Motion Picture Association, declared in a statement the investigators had produced no proof of charges that films contain subversive propaganda.

Thomas told reporters the committee will go into this aspect of things when it resumes its hearings either here or in Los Angeles. The time has not been fixed.

Members of the committee staff also will continue working on the spy ring during the recess, he said, "and when they are ready we will go into it again."

Greater Inflation
Or Higher Taxes
Seen As U. S. Choice

Washington, Oct. 31 (AP)—Help for Europe confronts this country with the choice between higher taxes or greater inflation, Rep. Crawford (R-Mich.) declared today.

At the same time, Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) called for a new excess profits levy as one approach to the twin problem Congress will confront next month of curbing high prices at home while working out a multi-billion-dollar European recovery program.

A Republican leadership decision on whether to press a third tax reduction bill at the November 17 session was delayed, meanwhile, by the illness of Rep. Knutson (R-Minn.).

Knutson, chairman of the tax-writing house ways and means committee had been scheduled to confer yesterday with Senator Taft (Ohio), head of the Senate's GOP policy committee, on the Minnesota's previously announced determination to make tax-cutting a top priority issue before Congress.

rained later on three counts of larceny, she pleaded innocent and now is awaiting trial, McNally said.

Jacobs has been living in the New York area in rooming houses and baths for the past two weeks, police said.

Mrs. Jacobs, a long time employee of the Detroit branch of the American Express Co., was arrested Sept. 12 and police said she admitted taking "at least" $107,000 which she said she turned over to her husband "because I loved him."

Later she pleaded innocent to the embezzlement charge in recorder's court and is free on $25,000 bond pending trial.

New York officers credited Samuel Halpern, an investigator for the American Surety Company, a bonding firm, with trailing Jacobs for weeks and finally providing the information that led to his arrest.

STORE CLEANED
OUT BY BANDITSLoot In Birmingham, Ala.
Jewel Theft Valued At
$75,000 To $80,000

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 31 (AP)—A gang of bandits leisurely looted a downtown store of jewelry valued at between $75,000 and $80,000 last night after binding and gagging a jeweler and his family in their home and taking his keys to open the store.

"They left the place as empty as an eggshell," said Louis W. Perry, the owner.

Detective L. C. L. Pierce described the daring and apparently minutely planned holdup as "one of the biggest jewelry robberies in the city's history."

The detective said the bandits, variously estimated as numbering between four and six, first went to the Perry home, bound the jeweler and his family and left them under guard while several went to the store.

When the looters returned, the entire group fled in the Perry automobile, which was found abandoned near the business district an hour later. The telephone line to the Perry home was severed.

Wreckage Of DC-4
Lost Over Alaska
Spotted By Plane

Ketchikan, Alaska, Oct. 31 (AP)—Wreckage of the Pan American World Airways Clipper that crashed Sunday with 18 persons aboard was sighted today on an Annette Island mountainside.

Wesley Monsen, son of Pilot Alf M. Monsen of the crashed airliner, said he flew over the wreckage and "apparently all had been killed instantly."

He said there was no question about the wrecked plane's identification. The plane was partially burned.

The crash was against 3,600-foot high Tangas Mountain, highest point on the island off the rugged and irregular southeastern Alaska coast. It is six miles east of the Annette Island airfield. The crash was on the north side of the mountain.

It was over the Annette Field that Pilot Monsen, a veteran of northern flying, made his last report by radio Sunday. He said then that extreme turbulence turned him back from a scheduled landing on the field.

Two search parties were enroute to the scene.

Brotherhoods Push
Demands For Wage
Raise On Railroads

Chicago, Oct. 31 (AP)—Spokesmen for five railroad brotherhoods who have been negotiating rules changes with the nation's railroads since Oct. 7, today demanded that the railroads set aside those negotiations temporarily and give immediate consideration to demands for a 50 per cent wage increase.

The brotherhoods, representing some 350,000 engineers, firemen, conductors, trainmen, switchmen, yardmen, served their wage demands, including a $3 a day minimum increase, on the railroads Sept. 30. The demands included a provision that any increases granted be made retroactive to Nov. 1, 1947.

Former Lifer Arrested
At Soo As Suspect In Highway Murder Case

Detroit, Oct. 31 (AP)—A former Marquette prison lifer, arrested at Sault Ste. Marie and brought here early today, was being questioned by police in the fatal shooting of George Stanley Spaul, Canadian farmer whose body was found near Port Huron.

Wayne and St. Clair county authorities, investigating the slaying of Spaul, a crippled farmer who recently had sold his land in Saskatchewan, went to the Upper Peninsula city yesterday and arrested Stewart at the home of his mother, Mrs. William Stewart, Sr.

Others in the party were Undersheriff A. J. Foster of St. Clair county, State Police Cpl. Edward Goldsworthy, and Sault Ste. Marie Police Chief J. Willard Welsh.

Spaul's bullet-pierced body was found near Port Huron several weeks ago, and his car was located a short time later on a Detroit street where it had been parked for several days.

Cotter said Stewart, questioned briefly shortly after his arrival here, admitted being in Detroit about the time the car was first noticed last August.

A gasoline station attendant and a patrolman, Cotter added, have identified Stewart's picture as that of the man they saw changing a tire on the Spaul car during the evening of Aug. 15.

Police also were checking reports that Spaul, on his way from Canada to Lansing to visit relatives, may have given Stewart a ride.

Stewart's prison record dates back to 1920 when, convicted on a car theft charge, he was sentenced to two years in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan. He has been convicted in Michigan of three other felonies.

Hughes Makes Big
Splash Saturday
With Flying Boat

Los Angeles, Oct. 31 (AP)—On the eve of a reopening congressional inquiry, Howard Hughes plans to make a big splash.

The wealthy planemaker said his 200-ton flying boat with the 320-foot wingspread will undergo water tests tomorrow. The Brewster committee's hearings are slated to reopen Monday.

Hughes—emphasizing that the ship probably will not fly until next spring—announced that tractors and tugs will haul the winged giant from its dock and on Sunday he personally will cruise around the harbor on taxi tests.

Taxi speeds up to 80 miles an hour are expected to produce data on airflow and water characteristics of the behemoth. Flying the boat, claims Hughes, "will be like learning to fly all over again."

Gunmen Get $29,000
At Sugar Refinery

Boston, Oct. 31 (AP)—Four gunmen escaped with a $29,000 payroll today after holding up the paymaster of the American Sugar Refinery in South Boston.

Police reported the men fled in a new black sedan.

The quartet, using cloth sacks as masks, were armed with a sawed-off shotgun and pistols and were clad in rough work clothes and welders' helmets.

The hold-up came close on the heels of a $108,000 payroll robbery yesterday at the Sturtevant Electric corporation in Hyde Park and the two crimes bore considerable similarity.

Taft-Hartley
Order Ignored
By Big Unions

BY HAROLD W. WARD

Washington, Oct. 31 (AP)—Four of the nation's most powerful labor unions give every sign of ignoring today's deadline for gaining legal status before the reorganized National Labor Relations Board.

The Taft-Hartley act requires unions to submit financial reports as well as affidavits from officers disavowing communism. And this under NLRB rules is the last day for compliance.

While many others rushed to get under the wire in time to save pending cases from dismissal, these four unions appeared to be clutch hold-outs.

John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers, Philip Murray's United Steelworkers, the United Auto Workers and the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers.

Always In Trouble

All but Lewis' AFL miners are CIO affiliates.

Lewis claims some 600,000 members, including 250,000 in the controversial UMW District 50. This collection of miscellaneous unions has been involved in almost constant jurisdictional conflict with other AFL affiliates as well as some CIO groups. Hence it could be hard hit by not having access to the NLRB for certification as a qualified collective bargaining agent.

Nevertheless, by allowing today's deadline to slip by, Lewis intentionally will force the NLRB to carry out its threat to dismiss pending cases of non-complying unions. District 50 is one of these. A. D. (Denny) Lewis, brother of the UMW chief and head of District 50, says there were about 200 District 50 cases on the board's docket when the Taft-Hartley act became effective August 22.

Although like Lewis an outspoken opponent of communism, Murray similarly refused to comply with the eligibility requirements on behalf of his far-flung Steelworkers Union, which he heads along with the entire CIO.

Lifting some of the secrecy surrounding sessions of the eleven-member Far Eastern commission, it was revealed that:

1. With the sole exception of Canada, every one of Japan's World War Two foes has claimed a larger share of the reparations pool—whose size is yet to be determined—than the others considered justified.

2. Only the Philippines put a dollar value on her loss. On a proportionate basis, the other claims—which were only in percentages of the future total pot—would add up to some $54,000,000,000.

3. China thinks she is entitled to 40 per cent of whatever is obtained from Japan under terms of the peace treaty which is yet to be drafted. The United States put in a 29 per cent bid, Australia 23 per cent, Britain 25 per cent, the Philippines 15 per cent, India 12.5 per cent, France, Netherlands and Russia, each 12 per cent; New Zealand, 2 per cent; and Canada, 1.5 per cent. Earlier claims were even higher.

4. All added up to 188 per cent of the ultimate pool.

FRENCH REGIME

Reshuffled

Paris, Oct. 31 (AP)—Parliamentarians and even associates of Socialist Premier Paul Ramadier declared today that the present middle-of-the-road French government would have to be shuffled again soon, despite yesterday's vote of confidence in the National assembly.

The vote for the government—300 to 280, with 18 absents—followed two days of fast-shaking, name-calling debate, but deputies appeared more interested in discussions outside the chamber about the possible future makeup of Ramadier's cabinet.

Many deputies expressed belief that the government would have to be shaken up within a month so as to bring in such figures as Leon Blum, former premier and elder statesman of the Socialist party, and Paul Reynaud, an independent Rightist who was the last premier before the fall of France.

Rehearing Asked
On Liquor Permit
For Lansing Hotel

Lansing, Oct. 31 (AP)—The state supreme court was asked today to grant a rehearing of its decision in the controversial Hotel Roosevelt case forbidding up-grading of liquor licenses near churches and schools.

Petition for a rehearing, seldom granted by the court, was filed by Ben F. Watson, Lansing attorney and counsel for the Lansing hotel.

Watson said in his petition that the effect of the court's decision would be to eliminate every liquor-by-the-glass license in Lansing, because if transfers of classification are to be considered new applications under the court's decision then all liquor licenses in Lansing would be in excess of the statutory quota. The ruling was said to have lesser importance in some other communities.

The petition contended the court in effect had frustrated the will of the Lansing voters who approved liquor by the glass sales last spring.

WARDENS ARE
ARE SAFE YETCOMMISSION QUILTS IN ANGER AFTER OUSTER EDICT

By JACK I. GREEN

Lansing, Oct. 31 (AP)—Governor Sigler, taking the reins of Michigan's stormy prison system in his own hands, today assured the top prison officials of the state their jobs were safe as long as they did a good job.

Sigler left Garrett Heyns, state corrections director, in physical charge of the prison system and instructed him to report directly to the governor.

He told Heyns to immediately suspend William H. Burke, assistant corrections director, and to find a new prison industries manager to replace J. Fred Munnell, whom the governor fired this week.

At Conference Today

Sigler took personal charge of the prisons last night after the entire corrections commission resigned in anger.

Sigler made his announcements at a conference attended by Heyns, Warden Ralph E. Benson of the State prison of Southern Michigan, Warden Gerald F. Bush of the Marquette Branch prison, Warden Joe R. Moore of the Ionia Reformatory, Attorney General Eugene F. Black and State Police Commissioner Donald S. Leonard.

He told them "so long as your job is done well all of you are secure in your positions and you will have my unlimited backing."

The three wardens reported to Sigler there was no sign of disturbance in their institutions, that morale was high and they asked only that the "uncertainties of this situation be ended."

All the wardens assured Sigler of their personal loyalty.

Meeting with the prison officials this morning, Sigler said "I will not tolerate any more Munnells or Burkes in the prison—no one in a position of trust about whom there is any question."

Heyns Cleared

Black assured Sigler that the investigation had disclosed nothing against the record of Heyns and Sigler said there was evidence that the corrections commission did not always give Heyns full support.

Questioned by Sigler about the Marquette timber contract, Bush said the timber contract was entered into a good faith. The prisoners for many years have harvested crops on shares—apples, cherries, and timber. It is true Mr. Belanger made a profit of $14,000 on the transaction but the state made an equal profit and provided work for its inmates.

"The fact still remains," Sigler said, "that it is a violation of law. The state doesn't need a profit from inmate labor."

The unsalaried commission, composed of prominent citizens who have served from six to 12 years, resigned yesterday afternoon without warning, after issuing a letter defending J. Fred Munnell, prison industries head whom Sigler had fired, and William H. Burke, assistant state corrections director, whom Sigler turned over to the commission with virtual orders to dismiss.

Burke Goes Next

PRICE SCRAP ON IN SCRAP IRON

Big Mills Stop Buying In Second Try At Cutting Prices

Scrap iron prices in most consuming areas were the highest in 30 years—until most big steel producers began withdrawing from the scrap market in a seemingly successful effort to bring scrap iron prices down.

Local iron salvage dealers say the peak of $43 a ton or more in Pittsburgh has passed and the price is now $38 a gross ton in Chicago. One dealer said that the $24 a net ton being offered for scrap iron here will drop to $20 and may go lower as a result of the steel men's boycott.

The boycott on high-priced scrap iron was reported to be the result of the steel industry's effort to keep down their own prices. They contend that unless interrupted the high price of scrap would make it necessary for them to either increase the cost of their product—or curtail operations.

Most of the scrap iron now being bought in this area comes from farmers who are rummaging around their farms to dispose of old machinery and equipment.

Local buyers say that most of the industrial scrap metal is gone in this area, and that the bonanza of scrap from the mining areas of the Upper Peninsula was largely harvested during the war years.

Some of the scrap dealers have been stuck by the rapid price decline. During the one week of peak prices they paid as high as $24 a ton and now with the market going down they have some high-priced scrap on hand to dispose of quick or hold for a possible upturn.

Cap Gun Legality Up To Michigan's Attorney General

Lansing, Oct. 31 (AP)—The legality of cap pistols in the hands of Michigan youths has been referred to the attorney general for an opinion. Commissioner Donald S. Leonard, state police commissioner says.

Leonard said he asked Attorney General Eugene F. Black to decide whether it was legal to sell cap pistols which had not been approved as to construction by the state police.

He also asked Black to rule whether the police commissioner had discretionary power to withhold approval of pistol makes if he felt them to be against the public interest, or whether he must approve those which he considers safe to handle.

The 1947 legislature, amending a penal code prohibition on cap pistols, exempted the sale of a certain size cap and pistols which have been approved as to make by the police commissioner.

Leonard said he also asked Black whether the state law would supersede a number of municipal ordinances forbidding the sale and use of cap guns.

"I have approved no cap pistols for sale in Michigan," Leonard said, "but I understand they are being sold. I want to find out just where I stand before I act. Apparently police officials did not know the legislature was planning to do what it did, and I did not know until after it was done that the state police were to be brought into the thing."

National Guard To Blossom Out In New Uniforms

Lansing, Oct. 31 (AP)—Michigan's new National Guard will blossom out in new uniforms within a few weeks.

The adjutant general's office reported today receipt of a carload of new-type uniforms and said units of the Guard will start Monday. Units which have reached full authorized strength will have priority in shipments. These include the Marquette, Muskegon and Detroit's 177th field artillery units.

The carload, the bulk of an expected shipment of 10,000 uniforms, is enough to equip the present Guard strength, it was said.

The new outfits are of a new shade of olive drab and include matching slacks and Eisenhower jackets.

National Guardsmen now are wearing second class used uniforms of varying styles, the office reported.

WOOD STUDIES ARE REVIEWED

Dr. Garland Addresses
Loggers Congress
At Houghton

Progress being made in the inventory of Upper Peninsula wood-using industries and the study of the utilization of aspen was reviewed in a paper delivered by Dr. Hereford Garland, director of the forest products research division of Michigan Tech, at the second annual Loggers' Congress in Houghton today.

Dr. Garland said that the aspen project is continuing in cooperation with the Lake States Aspen committee, which has undertaken the preparation of technical papers on 21 different aspects of aspen use.

The forest products research division at Michigan Tech, which is headed by Dr. Garland, is composed of the following staff: Arlie W. Toole, field technologist; Walter H. Koepf, chemical engineer, and Mrs. Ellen Asselin, technical secretary.

Dr. Garland reported that the research has been or will be started in the following categories: The use of wood by-products for veneer core stock, production and use of hardwood fiber as a by-product, manufacture of wood-cement products, procurement and concentration of wood by-product raw material, and the development of new uses for low-grade lumber.

"The technical staff," Dr. Garland said, "has recently completed a personal coverage of eastern United States and Canada, consulting with government, state and private wood research agencies, pulp and paper laboratories and mills, industrial development projects, process pilot plants and consulting engineers, gathering data and ideas on the various categories of research. With this sound background of experience of other researchers, projects are now being outlined for the consideration of the advisory committee at a meeting Nov. 13 in Grand Rapids."

"Our study so far," he continued, "has profited us by showing that some of the proposed new processes for wood by-products are closer to commercial feasibility than we had known. Others have been found to be technically over-rated."

A storage battery does not store electricity. Electric current passes through such a battery sets up a reversible chemical reaction which permits electricity to be generated chemically after the battery is "recharged."

Railway passenger miles in the United States reached a peak of 42,676,579,199 in 1918 and a low of 16,340,509,724 in 1933 but rose to a new peak of 95,549,090,472 in 1944 under wartime pressure.

U of M Writing Class Adds Six More Pupils

At the regular session of the professional writing course offered under the University of Michigan extension service, six new students enrolled and others are expected to come in during the week.

The new students are Mrs. John J. Walsh, Edna Mae Heidreich, Elsie Beauchamp, Viola McCormick, Mae O'Donnell and Helen Cloutier.

At the class meeting this Thursday, character sketches written by the members were read and discussed. The next assignment is to put the character in conflict.

Dr. Hall To Speak Sunday Morning At Methodist Church

Guest speaker at the First Methodist church in Escanaba Sunday morning will be Dr. Cameron P. Hall, executive secretary, department of the church and economic life of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. His sermon will be heard at 10:45 a. m. and he will be introduced by Rev. Otto Steen, pastor.

Dr. Hall's topic will be "Our Christian Responsibility." He is an ordained minister in the Presbyterian church in the United States.

For four years Dr. Hall was the student pastor at the University of Wisconsin, and for ten years he served a large Presbyterian church in the underprivileged area in New York City. For three years he was the secretary of the department of social education and action of the Presbyterian church in America.

Dr. Hall received his theological training in Edinburgh University, Edinburgh, Scotland, and Oxford University, England.

He was a delegate to the World Sunday School Association, Oslo, Norway, in 1936, and was a leader of the World Christian Youth Conference in Amsterdam in 1939, which disbanded three weeks before Hitler marched into Poland. He is now stationed at Federal Council headquarters in New York City.

The public is invited to attend the service and hear Dr. Hall. The First Methodist church is located at Sixth street and Second avenue.

FALL TAX RATE LOWER IN CITY

Assessments Figured At
$19.05 Per $1,000
Valuation

Despite the increase in assessed valuation adopted in the City of Escanaba last spring, Escanaba residents will pay slightly less taxes for county and school purposes this fall than they did a year ago. This was revealed Friday at the city hall, where the tax bills are being prepared.

The tax rate in Escanaba has been set at $19.04 per $1,000 assessed valuation, compared with $22.10 a year ago. The rate comprises $8.06 for county purposes, $8.38 for school operation and $2.60 for school debt purposes.

The reduction is made possible by a reduction in equalized valuation of city property by the county equalization board from $12,500,000 to $12,000,000. The city's assessed valuation is $11,000,000.

Tax bills will not be ready for distribution until Dec. 10. Bills are payable on or before Jan. 10.

The annual meeting of the Delta County Girl Scout committee held at the Junior high school in Gladstone Monday Oct. 27 in the evening was attended by Mrs. K. Scott, Mrs. Murray Cole, Mrs. Ray Callahan, Mrs. Fred Cavill and Mrs. Ed Lind from here.

Officers were elected. Mrs. O. S. Hult, president of the Delta County Council of Girl Scouts, John P. Vogt as vice president, Carl G. Nelson of Escanaba as 2nd vice president. Miss Nell Fleming of Nahma was re-elected as secretary-treasurer. A discussion on the advisability of joining the four county area councils was conducted but no decision was made. It was left for future consideration. New leaders for the Rapid River groups were selected as follows: Mrs. Joe Casimir and Mrs. Ray Callahan will have the Brownies ages, 7-10. Mrs. Murray Cole and Mrs. Louis Sorenfrei those 10-12. Mrs. Ed Lind and Miss Ellen Potvin, Scouts from 12-14. Mrs. Harry Johnson and Pat Kniskern the senior Scouts.

Building More Cabins

Napoleon Boudah is building four new cabins, two double ones and two single ones in his cabin court at the junction of US-2-41. That will give him ten cabins. All are equipped with heating facilities and running water and "Poly" says they are already all rented for the hunting season.

Kenneth Scott who earlier in the season acquired a lot on the Garth shores, has been building a cabin on it. He and his son John are doing most of the work on it, they expect to have it in a useable condition this fall and will use it for a hunting camp and also in the summer as an outing place.

New Saw Mill

William Vitzke, an experienced sawyer of many years employment in the Rapid River mill, who also operated a portable mill on the Rapid River on the William Vitzke sr., farm north of town has built himself a mill on the plains enroute to Ensign near the viaduct, opposite the Stonington road. A large diesel engine furnishes the power. He will specialize in custom sawing.

Builds House Trailer

Olaf Pearson who is employed at Iron Mountain grew tired of looking for room and board so he built a trailer house for himself in his "off" time at home. Recently he had it finished and hitched behind the car and took it to Iron Mountain. He can now "batch" in his own place.

Royal Neighbors Meet

A social meeting of the Royal Neighbors was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. William Cassidy. A short business session was held after which bingo was played. will be taken to St. Francis hospital in Escanaba for x-rays to determine the extent of his injuries.

Mrs. Jesse Jenkins spent the weekend at Munising visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Henning Lindberg and son Darrel of Detroit were guests over the weekend of Mrs. M. Lindberg in Masonville. Mr. and Mrs. Meddie Barbeau who accompanied them visited at the Tienert and Barbeau homes in Ensign.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hamilton and son Charles of Marinette were Sunday guests at the C. E. Hamilton home.

The number of freight cars on U. S. railroads reached a peak of 2,348,679 in 1926, much of the decline to 1,762,210 in 1945 being due to increased capacity of individual cars.

More Apprentices

EXPANSION of apprentice training in the building trades, discussed at a conference in Escanaba this week, is one of the essential requirements for a successful construction program in the Upper Peninsula in the years ahead.

The shortage of skilled craftsmen in the building trades is acute, constituting a serious bottleneck to the problem of meeting the vast demands for new construction, both private and public, commercial and residential.

Henry A. Reniger, Lansing, president of the Michigan chapter of the Associated General Contractors of America, Inc., who attended the conference here this week, pointed out that the average age of journeymen in the building trades is more than 50 years. There just are not enough apprentices in the trades to provide the skilled labor that will be needed in the years ahead to carry on an accelerated postwar building program.

Perhaps the most acute shortage is in the bricklaying trade and yet, despite the extremely attractive wages offered to bricklayers, there are only 500 bricklayer apprentices in the entire state of Michigan.

It is well to note that the building trades unions are cognizant of the problem and are showing an eagerness to do their part in a program to expand apprentice training in all phases of the important building crafts. The problem is particularly acute in Escanaba, where the community is developing some lusty growing pains and where the construction requirements are vast and urgent.

Report On Civil Rights

THE president's study committee on civil rights has just issued its report and it recommends a revamping of state and federal laws to guarantee four "essential rights," as follows:

1. The right to safety and security of person.
 2. The right to citizenship and its privileges.
 3. The right to freedom of conscience and expression.
 4. The right to equality of opportunity.
- Many American people may express surprise that it should be necessary in this country to fashion laws for the guarantee of these rights which they may have believed were already guaranteed to all Americans.

The right to personal safety is not guaranteed to the Negroes in areas where lynch law is permitted to flourish with the approval and all too frequently the abettance of local officials.

The right to citizenship and its privileges is not guaranteed to Negroes in states that have enacted poll taxes or white primary laws.

The right to freedom of conscience and expression is not guaranteed to Negroes in the deep South, where a man's color determines his right to the privileges of humanity.

The right to equality of opportunity is not guaranteed to Negroes in the states that have established segregation laws and in other areas where segregation flourishes by common practice.

The gist of the report of the presidential committee is a recommendation for the complete abandonment of racial segregation, by force of federal and state law.

The report goes considerably beyond the problem of racial discrimination in the United States but an analysis of the committee's recommendation leaves no room for doubt that if effective ways can be found to eliminate the injustices of racial discrimination and segregation, the other worries regarding restrictions on civil rights would automatically disappear.

Racial discrimination cannot be erased by statute alone, although admittedly legislation to that end is desirable. Racial discrimination and its evils necessitate a broad program of education and an appeal to man's inherent sense of justice to supplement and implement established law.

Reds In Hollywood

THE disclosure by the House un-American activities sub-committee investigating Communist influences in the film industry that the Reds do not like to stand up and be counted provides further evidence of the manner in which the Communists operate.

A half dozen characters have already been cited by the committee for contempt, each because he refused to answer questions concerning Communist affiliations.

The investigation thus far has revealed what was generally well known previously—that there are Communists in the film industry who would like to inject Red doctrines into American films but that the World Events Analyzed

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

London.—The first step in the socialization of Britain's coal mines was taken a long time before the present Labor government came into power. Most people failed to understand that that early step led to nationalization, which took place last year.

In 1930 the government passed a coal mines act fixing production quotas and minimum selling prices for the entire industry. That act of parliament removed the last shred of competition—the working of the law of supply and demand—from a chaotic and mismanaged industry.

It brought some order to coal mining but at the cost of keeping in operation uneconomic mines that should have been modernized or closed down long before. Under the umbrella of the law, high-cost mines survived because of a price fixed high enough to make a profit possible. Anyone who wants to find out how monopoly control, finally sanctioned in law, prepares the way for Socialism should come and study the mining industry here.

—TRYING TO MODERNIZE—

The national coal board, which took over the mines under an act passed last year, is now trying to bring the industry up to date. Chairman of the national board is Lord Hyndley, who was managing director of one of the largest coal companies in the country before socialization. Every British government during the past thirty years has turned to him for advice on coal, and each government, Conservative, Liberal and Labor alike, has honored him. At one time he was a director of the Bank of England.

Hyndley says that nationalization was inevitable, given the condition of the industry. He himself in 1945 submitted an unpublished report which proposed changes that would have meant going halfway toward national ownership as an intermediate step.

The coal board that Hyndley now heads is a national corporation with autonomous powers. The precedent for such a public corporation goes back fifty years to the port of London authority. In the same pattern is the broadcasting industry, publicly owned by the British Broadcasting corporation. Still another example is the British Overseas Airways corporation which operates all of Britain's civil aviation beyond the home shores.

—INHERITED HANDICAPS—

The new thing about the coal board is that for the first time the government has put a basic industry under a public corporation. It happens also to be an industry that had degenerated into a kind of economic slum, with low standards of pay and low standards of technique. Against those handicaps the coal board is now struggling.

Through his own efforts in industry, Hyndley has achieved a modest fortune and a peerage. He is 64, an age when most men like to think of letting down a little. Yet at a salary of $34,000 a year, scarcely half of what he could get from private business, he has taken on a terrific job that demands 12 to 14 hours a day of his time.

His motive is a strong sense of duty. It is this same sense of public obligation which, through the years of Britain's world supremacy, put men of capacity into responsible public offices. It is one of Britain's assets today in this gravest crisis.

One line of attack in the Conservative press is that too high power is centralized in the national coal board in London. Actually, under the nationalization act, every effort was made to give autonomous powers to the eight individual boards, which are similar in composition to the national board. Each individual board is responsible for spending up to $200,000,000 for opening new pits and modernizing old ones.

—TRIAL AND ERROR—

There is still a lot of trial and error in this extraordinary experiment involving some 700,000 workers and hundreds of millions of dollars in property. Many of the Tory brickbats are aimed at the minister of fuel and power. But the minister's powers are extremely limited. Members of the coal board have five-year contracts and they cannot be fired short of some improbable public misconduct.

The new fuel minister is Hugh Gaitskell. He replaced Emanuel Shinwell, an old-time Labor party spellbinder who was demoted when Prime Minister Attlee reshuffled his government just prior to the present session of parliament.

Gaitskell was a teacher of economics at Oxford university before he was drafted into Labor party politics. He is typical of the youngish experts who have risen to power in the party. They are expert managers first and political Socialists second. Gaitskell will certainly avoid Shinwell's blunders. On coal he must decide over-all policy "in the national interest."

Hyndley and Gaitskell are utterly different in almost every respect. But in working together they will have one thing in common, and that is a supreme desire to get coal and more coal, for they both understand that coal is the lifeblood of Britain's economy.

sportsmanship, which is admired all over the world. Go out and have fun tonight, kids; but practice fair play. Don't destroy, damage, or deface anyone's property. Things cost money; and money doesn't grow on trees, as you know.

And about street lights—don't break them, please. New ones have to be paid for by the taxpayers—and the taxpayers are your dads.

A Reliable Baby Sitter Would Be a Great Comfort

Good Evening

By Clint Dunathan

THE PASSING AGE — There was the Stone Age, a Bronze Age, and now there is the Iron Age. Those of us who are fortunate enough to live for another half century may see the beginning—in fact we have already observed the beginning—of the change from the Iron Age to what? Will it be the Atomic Age? That is unlikely. More practically it will be the age of alloys.

The passing of the Iron Age is of more than usual interest to ore shipping centers such as Escanaba and Marquette, Duluth and Superior, and to the whole economy of this Northern Great Lakes region. For it is in this area that nature saw fit to locate some of the richest iron ore deposits in the world—riches that are now dwindling and may within another half-century be only a remembered resource.

DWINDLING RESOURCE — Allen W. Lander of Maywood, N. J., whom we are unable to identify further although we believe he must be a former local resident, wrote on Oct. 17 enclosing a clipping from the New York Times. The piece is titled "Decline of the Mesabi." We will draw on it for information as we go along.

The surface ores of the Mesabi range (in Minnesota) are nearing exhaustion—a matter of 40 years or so according to the more optimistic estimates, and of 13 according to the more pessimistic.

LOW GRADE ORES — From Duluth come news that at Beaver Bay, Minn., on the north shore of Lake Superior, a plant is to be erected at a cost of $77,000,000 which is concentrate high grade iron ore from taconite—a rock bearing low grade ore.

The immense deposits of iron ore in the Mesabi range, deposits which have been dug up with steam shovels alone, were once washed out of taconite, a rock. There are 60 billion tons of taconite in its original state under the Mesabi range, and there are additional billions of tons of it in the Gogebic, Menominee and Marquette iron ranges in the Upper Peninsula.

Taconite will have to be quarried at great expense and then treated at more expense to concentrate the iron that it contains.

NO CHEAP SUBSTITUTE — There is no cheap domestic substitute for the high grade surface ore such as that at the Mesabi, or for the mining of iron ore from the pits in the three ranges of the Upper Peninsula.

The taconite industry will never be able to meet the full demand of the blast furnaces and mills between Chicago and Pittsburgh.

IMPORTED ORES — It is predicted that furnaces will rise along the Atlantic coast to make the most of imported ores. Labrador, Chile, Venezuela and Brazil deposits have become increasingly important for this reason. It will be cheaper to carry ore by steamer than to carry taconite ore through the Great Lakes and to the Pittsburgh region, considering the cost of concentrating the low-grade ores.

OUR FUTURE — The prospect of vanishing high grade iron ore resources in the Upper Lakes region is enough to frighten all but the most courageous Chambers of Commerce. The denature of the mining companies from an area

INTO THE PAST

Ten Years Ago

ESCANABA — Miss Georgia Zinke instructor in the F. W. Good high school, has been selected to serve as chief hostess for the Deerhuntsers Grubfest and Shindig Nov. 13 in Nahma.

ESCANABA — The outside walls of Kasota stone are rapidly rising at the William Bonifas Memorial building across from St. Joseph's church.

GLADSTONE — Albert Texmunt lost the tip of his forefinger Thursday when his hand slipped while he was working on a planer in the school manual arts department.

MANISTIQUE — Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Reid are leaving today to spend the winter in Florida.

Twenty Years Ago

HERMANVILLE — Chris Gribble, cashier of First National bank in Hermanville, was honored at the Michigan Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows in Adrian by elevation to the post of grand master of the state of Michigan.

MANISTIQUE — Sheriff J. M. Hewitt has named Paul Knuth and John Nelson as deputies to fill staff vacancies.

GLADSTONE — Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Davis left last night for St. Petersburg, Fla., where they will spend the winter.

ESCANABA — A large crowd gathered at St. Joseph's cemetery last night to recite with Rev. Fr. Bertrand Labinski, the prayers for the repose of the souls in Purgatory. Following prayers at the graves of relatives, the worshippers gathered beneath the cross marking the entrance to the cemetery to hear Rev. Fr. Klosterkemper preach.

can leave it in an economic backwash as troublesome as that infecting the Upper Peninsula's

Copper Country.

The community that is built on a backbone of iron could so easily collapse when that sustaining vertebrae is removed.

Its effect will be keenly felt in such communities as Escanaba, one of the principal ore shipping ports of the Upper Peninsula. Escanaba was born of iron, was weaned on iron ore handling, and is sustained in large part by the ore transportation industry.

DIVERSIFICATION — Industrial diversification, a program on which Escanaba is well-embarked, will be the saving factor for the community whose economy has a foundation in iron ore. That and the continued increase in the tourist business, which has been a particular boon to the Copper Country.

THE ALLOYS — For a century or two, at least, the world will make the most of its dwindling supply of iron ore. But already we are turning to aluminum. Parts of automobile engines, railway cars, even bridge members, are built of that light material.

The art of making light strong alloys is still young. There is even reason to believe that some day steel will be used only for heavy machinery, rails, cutting tools, apparatus that must be strong and heavy, and that most of our buildings, even skyscrapers, will have metal skeletons of light, tough alloys.

When that day comes the long-familiar red dust that has made fortunes and brought prosperity to the northern lakes region will be a thing of the past. Another natural resource will have gone the way of the clear pine timber stand, the rich veins of copper and the homing pigeon.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington.—Out in Pekin, Illinois, there is a poorer section of the city with neat little fences setting off gardens in which grow, not flowers, but vegetables. Even before the wartime vogue for victory gardens, these frugal residents of Pekin wasted no space on lawns and scenery.

From this isolationist German-American community, there came to Congress 16 years ago, brash, boyish Everett Dirksen, elected on the Republican ticket despite the Roosevelt landslide. In Washington, Dirksen has worked just as hard as his neighbors, gradually grown until he is now one of the respected leaders of the GOP Congress.

Last summer, Dirksen went back to the land of his forebears, this time as chairman of a joint congressional committee on the armed services. In Germany and Austria his committee held hearings. Sometimes acting as interpreter, Dirksen listened to all sides, called in U. S. Army officers, U. S. civilians, anybody who wanted to help present the picture of what was going on in Germany. In fact, Dirksen held such a running-fire of hearings that, in Vienna, colleagues complained: "When do we get a day off?"

"Tomorrow," replied the gentleman from Illinois, "tomorrow is Saturday. Today we work."

—RUSSIA PREPARES—

Net result of Dirksen's investigation: The U. S. Army is doing a good job. . . German textbooks have been creditably rewritten. . . The German-Austrian population is seriously undernourished. Children, main hope of future European friendship, are getting an extra meal at school (They call it Hooverspising) without which they would be in tragic condition. . . The Russians are scheming to take over Austria soon. Austrians are gradually being won over to the Russians not through liking them, but through fear—fear that the American Army will pull out and leave them stranded. . . They also fear what the Russians did to the Hungarians to force them into Communism—ice-water enemas. . . In Germany the Russians are constantly turning over their troops. Red army soldiers are kept in Germany long enough to learn the language, then taken out of uniform and given civilian jobs there. They remain, however, trained soldiers, ready to don the uniform again. . . Russia's main European goal, concluded Dirksen: "To take over all Germany."

Stepping off the airplane in New York, the congressman from Pekin, Illinois, remarked: "If the president doesn't call a special session I am going to stage a one-man march on the White House."

A few minutes later, he got a phone call saying Truman wanted to see him. The special session was subsequently called.

Note—Reporting to the president Dirksen was strong in his praise of Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American commander in Germany.

—SUGAR CONTROLS OFF—

As price control goes off sugar today for the first time since the war, some housewives are wondering why the Army chose this time to buy several thousand tons of sugar for Japan and Germany.

Up until this summer, the Army had sent only 12,000 tons of sugar to Japan and Germany. But recently this quota was boosted to 127,000 tons, and the Army is making another sugar purchase soon of 484,000 tons.

Reasons behind this:

1. The price of wheat is so high that, measured in calories, sugar is cheaper. Since the U. S. Army undertakes to feed the Japanese and German people a certain number of calories, it can get the same calory content by using more sugar and less wheat.

2. The Cuban sugar crop this year was the greatest in history while the American beet-sugar crop in the western states was one of the greatest.

Actually, there may be a temporary dislocation of sugar when price controls go off today, due to the fact that eastern refiners have slowed up their imports from Cuba. This may send prices up temporarily. However, by moving western beet sugar east, and speeding imports from Cuba, this dislocation and price boost can soon be readjusted.

—BERNARD BARUCH'S SECRET—

The Senate disclosure by gaunt, gray Bernard Baruch that FDR had offered him the chairmanship of the war production board, then suddenly withdrew it, made front-page headlines last week.

However, Bernie didn't tell the whole story. He left it dangling in mid-air. The whole story of Roosevelt's mysterious change of heart was told in detail in the Washington Merry-Go-Round, April 30, 1943. In reporting the Army-Navy's secret attempt to control civilian war production, that column read:

"The Army and Navy were determined to get General Nelson out of the war production picture. How near they came, the public never knew. Actually the president signed a letter putting Bernie Baruch in charge of war production. Under him, because of his age, was to be an administrative deputy, energetic Lewis Douglas, dynamo of the war shipping administration. "The Army figured it would control benevolent Baruch, knew Lew Douglas was the brother-in-law of Assistant Secretary of War Jack McCloy. Everything was set. "Then suddenly the long-haired boys jumped to Nelson's support. They got Wayne Coy, a potent influence with the president, to go to the White House. Mysteriously, the story of the Army's deal leaked to the press. Suddenly, Nelson fired

"Pacifists would do well to study the Siegfried and Maginot lines, remembering that these defenses were forced, that Troy fell, that the walls of Hadrian succumbed, that the Great Wall of China was futile, and that, by the same token, the mighty seas which are alleged to defend us can also be circumvented by a resolute and ingenious opponent."

1948 GOOD YEAR FOR CAPRICORN

Bob Consults Astrologer To Learn State Of The Nation

BY ROBERT C. RUARK

New York—The Marshall plan will come off all right, Howard Hughes will take care of himself in the next investigation, Marlene Dietrich will continue to wear legs habitually and tastefully.

I think. Because 1948 is going to be a pretty good year for the Capricorn kids, this is on the word of Mr. Carroll Righter, an astrologer, to whom I finally turned in a desperate attempt to find out what's what with the nation.

Mr. Righter who makes a very comfortable living adjusting the stars to people will not comment on the atom, because the atom has no birthday, and birthdays are essential in the horoscope profession. But he has rendered daily planetary advice to Miss Dietrich for the last nine years, and she appears to thrive on the advice.

Jupiter Acting Up
Jupiter is acting up all over the heavens, says Mr. Righter, and we have a very good aspect for Uranus-in-Virgo, not to mention Neptune-in-Taurus. It is a tough way of saying that you can finally endorse the Marshall plan and continue to admire Marlene Dietrich, because 1948 is on the calendar as a very big season for the December-January babies who work under the wing of the highest planet in the skies.

It's a shame I can't drag in an equally blithe report on Harry, Poor Harry. I have just seen this horoscope.
You know what's wrong with Mr. Truman? The transiting Mars conjuncts Saturn in the sign of Leo, squaring his natal sun in the sign of Taurus and opposing his natal Mars in the sign of Aquarius.
"What does that mean?" I asked.
"Very tough year for Mr. Truman," he said. "Truman is a Taurus boy and that old droopy-drawers Taurus is awful slow and gradual. But there's still hope."

"Mr. Truman's one good aspect is that Mars conjuncts Saturn in the sign of Leo; Sextiles has native Saturn in the sign of Libra." Well, well, translation, please.
"By being consciously diplomatic and tactful he can overcome some of the difficulties," replied Mr. Righter, momentarily abandoning the heavens for a helping of herring-in-cream. "But the axe will drop on a lot of his hired help."

Good for Aries Boys
Still pursuing the scientific approach to the changes of next year's competitors, I learn that we have a full stable of Aries men. Governors Dewey and Stassen, and also Sen. Vandenberg, all operate under the Aegis of Aries, a pretty blithe planet.
"It looks good for the Aries boys," says Mr. Righter. "None of them will be eclipsed. Also Mr. Dewey will have more charm, especially for ladies."
Things are picking up for Sen. Taft, too. He comes under the heading of Virgo, which usually sponsors a flock of severe critics. But, says Mr. Righter, under Robert's unspectacular front lurks a potent capacity for playing the pixie. Also, he's a suppressed ham, or actor, according to what the planets say. The only real shadow on his future is the definite indication that a lot of influential people will give him the run-around. Mind you, this isn't my view. I am only quoting the heavenly bodies.

"Hitler was an Aries-Taurus cusp," Mr. Righter said, suddenly, fixing me with a finger.

"Hugh?" I answered. I mean, family newspapers....
"An Aries-Taurus cusp," repeated Mr. Righter, firmly. "He was halfway between both influences, which means he had a double capacity. If he was good, he was twice as good. If he was bad, he was twice as bad."

MacArthur Declining
"What's with General MacArthur?"

"Declining, I'm afraid," said Mr. Righter. "His power is diminishing. But he is in there, under the Aquarius sign with a lot of famous people. Lindbergh, Edison, John L. Lewis, Mr. Roosevelt, Caruso, Katherine Cornell—we get most of our important people from Aquarius. Very positive people."

I am naturally curious about Gen. Eisenhower, who, it seems, falls under the Libra heading with Henry Wallace. Libra is in very good shape, and it says in the stars that both Mr. Wallace's judgment and his ideas will improve for 1948, but he will go in to a tailspin in '49. As for Ike, he is vague but favorable, and I am not the one to say that the planets may have been reading the newspapers.

Menominee Will Pave Two Runways

Menominee, Mich.—Revision of plans which will mean the hard-surfacing of two full runways, instead of one runway and landing strips at each end of another runway at Menominee county's new airport here was approved by the Menominee county airport committee at a meeting with Herbert J. Foth of Green Bay, member of the firm of Foth & Porath, the county's consulting engineer on the airport project.

The revision was made because the Civil Aeronautics Administration and the Michigan Department of Aeronautics will now permit hard-surfaced runways with an oilseal coat of top dressing instead of the formerly required two inches of blacktop pavement. The policy change cuts in half the cost of constructing the hard-surfaced runways.

Under the original two-inch blacktop plan, the project for hard-surfacing the long (north-west-southwest) runway, plus landing strips at each end of the east-west runway and suitable taxi strips would have cost an estimated $75,000. By using the oilseal top dressing instead of blacktop, both the long runway and the north-south runway can be hard-surfaced with 100-foot wide pavement at considerably less than $75,000, leaving federal and state funds available for other airport development.

Betty LaChapelle,
Joseph Beveridge,
Married Today

St. Joseph's church, its altars decorated with autumn flowers, was the setting for the wedding this morning of Betty LaChapelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George LaChapelle, of 318 Second avenue south, and Joseph P. Beveridge, of 1126 North 21st street, Escanaba, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Beveridge, of Isabella.

Rev. Fr. Alphonse, O. F. M., was celebrant of the nuptial high mass at 9 o'clock, and officiated at the wedding service.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a tulle gown, slipper satin, the gown trimmed in marquisette and lace. Matching lace edged her bridal veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of roses and chrysanthemums, showered with white satin ribbons.

Wedding Breakfast
Dorothy LaChapelle, who was maid of honor for her sister, wore an aqua taffeta dress, with a cluster of flowers in her hair, and she carried a bouquet similar to the bride's, with aqua ribbons. The bridesmaid, Mrs. Roy Wester, of Isabella, a sister of the bridegroom, wore rose taffeta and marquisette, and she carried a like bouquet and had a matching flower headress.

Mrs. LaChapelle attended her daughter's wedding wearing a street length blue crepe dress with black accessories and Mrs. Beveridge wore rose print silk with black accessories. Corsages of roses were worn by both mothers.

William Beveridge, of Gladstone, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and George O'Connell, of Escanaba, ushered.

At the Communion of the mass, which was sung by St. Joseph's choir, Sheridan LaChapelle, brother of the bride, sang "Panis Angelicus." The Offertory solo, Rossini's "Ave Maria," was sung by Miss Doris Costley, and Mrs. Eldridge Baker sang the solos of the mass. The bridal procession and recessional were played by Miss Eva Cossette, organist-director.

A wedding breakfast for 30 guests was served at the bride's home. Decorations of the bridal table, centered with the tiered wedding cake, were in blue and white.

Home in Gladstone
The couple, following a wedding trip to an unannounced destination, will live in Gladstone.

The former Miss LaChapelle, a graduate of St. Joseph's high school, is secretary of the Game and Forestry divisions of the Michigan Conservation Department headquarters in Escanaba. Her husband, a graduate of Nahma high school, is employed as clerk with the Field Administration division of the Conservation Department.

Horror Things in Witch-Amorra?

A Halloween Fantasy Starring
A Bag, a Broom and a Hank of Hair

At Hallowe'en, the witch is seen,
Aloft at witching hour,
Her broom can zoom beyond the moon—
It has the new jet power.

She lands all right (she looks a fright!)
And poses, smugly pert,
There's something queer with her this year—
By gosh! That new long skirt!

Aloft again, she pulls up when
A pumpkinhead she spies.
It's big and fat and—what is that?
It flashes neon eyes!

It starts to rise into the skies,
She wonders—breath abated,
The proper clues are in the news—
E'en pumpkins are inflated!

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Ferd Eberstadt. This electrified Washington. Old Don Nelson had taken a new lease on life. "What had happened was that the president didn't like Eberstadt, knew he would be pleased if Nelson fired him. This turned the tide. The president revoked his earlier letter putting Baruch and Lew Douglas in charge of war production."

As Baruch intimated to the Senate committee, that incident is still important. Because the man who engineered the move to oust civilian control of war production is the same man who now sits in firm control of both the Army and the Navy — persevering Jimmy Forrestal.

—TAKE BACK SEATS—
The House un-American activities committee saw to it that the movie stars, who came to protest against the Hollywood hearing, got no better treatment than the rest of the public. Such celebrities as Humphrey Bogart, Lauren Bacall, Danny Kaye and Paul Henreid were herded into a long visitors' line. When they reached the door, the guard snapped: "Are you the show people?"

Then he ushered them past empty seats and plunked them down in the rear of the hearing room. Later a friendly guard moved glamor girls June Havoc and Jane Wyatt nearer the front. There they talked to two old ladies who said they were charwomen in the House office building.

"We old biddies are just as mad as we can be," one protested. "Why, it was plain oneness of them to seat you in the back of the room."

FOR EFFICIENCY FOR ECONOMY

PEOPLE EVERYWHERE are wisely choosing complete electrification... and rapidly, too!

Within a short time, most everyone will be using electricity not merely for lighting, but for the big time-and-energy consuming jobs like Refrigeration, Cooking, Water Heating, Laundering, Cleaning and Water Pumping.

The reason is this: Electricity does all the jobs better... and cheaper. It's more convenient, quicker, safer, cleaner and more efficient. It saves time, energy, labor... increases farm product value.

GO ALL-ELECTRIC: The cost of electricity is low... and it drops much lower when you use it freely.

BOTTLING WORKS IS ENLARGED

New Warehouse Nearing Completion — Old
One Remodeled

With a new 45 by 30-foot warehouse practically completed, the Williams Bottling Works began extensive remodeling operations on its old warehouse Thursday morning.

The old building, which is a 40x30-foot structure of two stories, will be sided with brick veneer and its gabled roof will be changed to a flat one. There will be some remodeling also in the interior of the structure.

Still remaining to be done to the new unit is the application of insulation and installation of refrigeration to a large vault in which keg beer is to be stored. Maintaining a never varying temperature in this room is an important factor in maintaining a satisfactory condition of the product.

Located on an alleyway, midway between Main and Walnut streets, the business commands little attention from the average man on the street. The business, however, is far from unpretentious. Being distributor for scores of taverns, confectionery and grocery stores in the area, several large trucks are used and four other buildings, scattered about the city are warehouses for certain of their products and for empty bottles, kegs etc.

When the proprietors, John Sr. and Ralph Williams took over the business, the place was, in reality a pop factory, but since the Volstead act became history, the company became distributor for beer and wines, along with pop, ginger ales and fountain specialties.

WANT BOYS TO ATTEND CONFAB

Ask Organizations To Sponsor Trip To Marquette

Special effort is being made at this time to interest high school boys, 16 years and older and in local service, fraternal and PTA groups in sponsoring a trip for them to the Older Boys' Conference at Marquette, Nov. 7 and 8.

This conference, according to Carl Olson, high school principal and local conference chairman, provides experiences that will remain with the boys through the years for their last good. Dr. Glen Frye, of Benton Harbor, well known youth leader and speaker at many of these conferences will be the main speaker.

The purpose of this meeting will be the discussion together, by the leaders and the boys themselves, problems that face high school youth today and tomorrow.

The conference fee is $6.50 which includes program fee, group meal, big banquet and the transportation fee. Theodore Corombus, staff member, will accompany the boys.

Local sponsors hope that those groups which have provided the trip for at least one boy, will do so again this year.

Registration fees and names of boys should be in the hands of Mr. Olson not later than next Tuesday.

More Sopranos Needed In Local Messiah Chorus

All former members of the soprano section of the Messiah chorus are asked to join the chorus again. For some unaccountable reason, and for the first time since the chorus began, the sopranos are in the minority and Mrs. James Fyfe, the chorus director, says that the need for more voices in this sector is grave.

A short time ago there was a dearth of men's voices, but this trouble no longer exists and the hearty support of basses and tenors in those time honored sacred selections gave the singing a most impressive touch the director declares.

The choruses are being held in the high school auditorium and members are urged to be there at 7:30 when the practice begins. Members are requested to use the south entrance.

As far as Delta county is concerned, the 1947 high school football season will come to a roaring climax at the Escanaba athletic field tomorrow afternoon when the Gladstone Braves, 1946 mythical Upper Peninsula champions, battle the Escanaba Eskymos, who have a wide margin of victories in this inter-city grid classic.

The "piece de resistance" of the 1947 season in Delta county has nothing to do with a conference championship or a U. P. title, but it ranks as a game that every football fan in this vicinity will see and talk about for weeks afterwards.

The game marks the end of the season for both elevens and much prestige is at stake. Gladstone has a record of having played 21 games through three seasons without defeat, and Escanaba will be out to prove its mastery over even a spectacularly successful Class C team.

4,500 To See Game

Having been stung by Norway, Menominee, Iron Mountain and Marquette in a season that looked fairly promising at the outset, the Eskymos are also desirous of registering a win to gain a .500 rating before putting the pads away until next season. A triumph over Gladstone will give them a record of four victories and four defeats.

An unprecedented demand has been made for reserved seats, Edward Edick, Escanaba high school principal, said this morning. Block after block has been dispatched with great haste to Gladstone, where they have been gobbled up practically before hitting the counter at Dehlin's drug store.

Likewise, Escanaba fans have been clamoring for reserved seat duets, which are on sale at the senior and junior high schools and at Gust Asps. To handle the great demand, three choice mid-sections of the stadium have been set aside for reserved seat ticket sales and bleachers are being erected on the east side of the field for Escanaba high school students.

Traditional Finale

"This will give us a seating capacity of approximately 4,500," Mr. Edick said. "We expect that many at the game, which would be more than 500 more than the number who attended the Menominee-Escanaba game Saturday, Oct. 4."

Further evidence of the interest in this game is the fact that several stores will be closed in Gladstone during the afternoon to permit employees to attend the game in Escanaba. No such action has been taken in Escanaba, but it is a foregone conclusion that every fan here who possibly can will attend the game.

With only three exceptions, the Gladstone-Escanaba game has been the traditional closing game of the season for both schools since 1927. In 1930, 1934 and 1942, it was the next to the last game on the Eskymos' schedule.

Braves Won In '46

On a games-won-and-lost basis, the triumph series has not been a success for Gladstone. But it is a tribute to the game itself and to the friendly rivalry existing between the two communities that the series has been continued year after year.

Escanaba has won 25 of the 33 games played in the series since 1899. Gladstone has won four and four have ended in deadlocks, two of them scoreless ties.

The Braves beat Escanaba 11-0 in 1901, 21-6 in 1928, 20-0 in 1930 and after battling to a 6-6 deadlock in 1945, the Braves rose on their haunches and slapped a 26-14 defeat on the Eskymos in Gladstone last season. It was the game that climaxed their bid for the mythical Upper Peninsula championship of 1946.

Seniors End Careers

That 26-14 Gladstone triumph last season snapped a string of 15 straight games in the series without a loss. A glance at the record shows that Escanaba trounced Gladstone by the phenomenal score of 133 to 0 in 1913, and it must have been a blow to Brave pride, for the series was not resumed after that until 1923. Since then, however, the rivals have met each season without a break.

With the exception of Ted Gardner, Escanaba senior tackle, who has been harassed with injuries all season and finally contracted appendicitis about two weeks ago to be sidelined for the rest of the season, both elevens will be in fair shape for tomorrow.

Key personnel sustained injuries in last week's engagements, namely Capt. Dave LeGault, the Braves' premier ground gainer, and Warren "Moose" Gustafson, Eskymo fullback and defensive star, but all have responded favorably to treatment and are expected to be ready to go Saturday.

Eskymo regulars who will be playing their last game for Escanaba are Dave Walch, outstanding tackle; Ronald Johnson, quarterback and passer; Ernie Belanger, halfback; Bob Judson, guard and fullback, whose power plunges highlighted the Ironwood and Marquette games, and Bob Anderson, plucky little center who sustained a hip injury in the Iron Mountain game but will see some action Saturday. Other seniors set to play their last game for the Eskymos are Gust Anderson and Bob Kennelly.

Judson came down yesterday with a cold, which may hinder his effectiveness tomorrow. He was still bothered with it today but was expected to see some action.

'AS LEGAULT GOES, SO GOES THE TEAM'

Gladstone, Oct. 31—Buoyed by the return of Capt. David LeGault, injured in the Stephenson game, to the squad the Gladstone Braves travel to Escanaba for the big game of the season Saturday. However, there is a question of how well and how much of the game he will be able to play. Coach Eldon Keil yesterday was extremely pessimistic. And the general feeling is that "as LeGault goes, so goes the team."

It is a hard blow to take to have the team's sparkplug, quarterback and only breakaway runner injured in a game that usually is just a "breather" before the top game of the year.

LeGault May Not Start

The irony of it is that it is the first time in four years of competition the stocky little speed merchant has been injured, and it comes just before his final high school football game.

In the event that LeGault doesn't start or is forced to leave the game, Moreau will leave his spot at end and play in the left half-back slot with Ken Lessard, Doug Madden and Cliff Gillis in the other backfield positions.

If Moreau is in the backfield, Jerry Londo will be at one end and Dick Skoglund will hold down the other flank. Bob Beaudry and John Kuchan will be the tackles with Gary Soderman and Lawrence Valencie at guards and Clint "Red" Butler at center.

21 WITHOUT DEFEAT

All but Lessard, Skoglund, Beaudry and Londo will be playing their final football game for Gladstone high.

The Braves this season have won six and tied one. The 13-13 deadlock with Munising is the only blot on their schedule. When they downed Stephenson last weekend they stretched their victory string without defeat to 21 games.

Against their Saturday foe they played a 0-0 tie in 1945 and relied to trim the Eskymos 26-14, and cop the mythical Upper Peninsula title in 1946.

HOPPE NOT WORRIED

Detroit, Oct. 31 (P)—Billiards Champions Willie Hoppe and Willie Mosconi had amassed their biggest leads to date over challengers Arthur Rubin and Jimmy Caras as the four moved into today's play.

Mass Baby Sitting For Grid Loving Parents Hits A Snag

Norman, Okla., Oct. 31 (P)—The University of Oklahoma's project on mass baby sitting for football-loving student parents has foundered in the face of reality. The retreat was announced yesterday by Paul McMinn, director of university student affairs. He said the difficulty was getting close medical supervision for the project, plus the danger of spreading communicable diseases among the infants and children.

A score of other colleges had written for information on the scheme, which was started when student senator, Ferrill Rogers, suggested the school pay for baby sitters to let students who were also parents attend home football games. As many as 150 children at a time were cared for on several Saturday afternoons.

SUSPENDED — Leslie O'Connor (above), general manager of the Chicago White Sox, announced in Chicago that he had been suspended from organized baseball by Commissioner Happy Chandler. Suspension came as a result of the hiring of a high school pitcher to pitch batting practice for the White Sox. (NEA Telephoto)

Far West: Oregon over Idaho, Oregon State over Stanford, Southern California over Washington.

HARRIERS AT LANSING — East Lansing, Oct. 31 (P)—Unbeaten Penn State and Michigan State cross country teams will match strides here Saturday morning in a four-mile run. The meet is the first on the Spartan home schedule. Last week Coach Karl A. Schladerman's runners beat out the University of Iowa and lost to Notre Dame at South Bend, Ind.

Lex Cook, new coach of the Dallas Texans in the U. S. Hockey League, coached the Kirkland Lake Blue Devils in 1940 when they won the Allen Cup, emblematic of the senior championship of Canada.

Far West: Oregon over Idaho, Oregon State over Stanford, Southern California over Washington.

Each team defeated Rice, the September title-favorite by two touchdowns but past records mean little in the Southwest circuit. Doak Walker to be the star but Texas to win.

Navy-Notre Dame: This is the final week of the Irish take on Army and the final score will depend entirely upon how much the Notre Dames are thinking of the Cadets. Notre Dame.

California-UCLA: Cal Rossi and others of the UCLA team supposedly are ill of food poisoning. Even if he were in good health the now once-beaten Bears would have the edge. California.

Alabama-Kentucky: The Kentuckians are itching for bowl consideration and what is a better method of getting it than by beating perennial bowl candidate from Tuscaloosa, Kentucky.

Duke - Georgia Tech: Dinky Bowen is back in shape and he should enjoy an afternoon behind that Georgia Tech line. Georgia Tech.

Washington & Lee-Army: The Cadets start another win streak but it may continue for only a single game, in view of the Notre Dame contest directly ahead. Army.

Indiana-Ohio State: The Hoosiers have the Big Nine's best defense and if the Buckeyes couldn't pierce the Pitt line last week how will they handle the Hoosiers? Indiana.

Cornell-Columbia: A pair of underdogs who turned in surprises last week. Cornell's Dorset has completed 12 passes in a row but the law of averages will catch up with him here. Columbia.

Pennsylvania-Princeton: A year ago Princeton spilled Penn 17 to 14. It would be a greater upset if the Tigers repeated. Penn.

"It Seems To Me"

BY JIM WARD

Only six games on this week's schedule, but, as usual, a couple of toughies are in there to make a prognosticator's hair grow just a wee bit thin around the edges.

One of the toughies is the Escanaba-Gladstone melee here tomorrow afternoon in which an outstanding Class C team bumps up against a so-so Class B team. That alone makes it tough to call. Then, it is a traditional classic. They're always difficult to predict (e. g. Munising's 33-0 victory over St. Joe in the "little brown jug" battle here last Saturday). And add to that the fact that both are keyed up, Gladstone to protect its unbeaten record and Escanaba to salvage a measure of glory from a season that promised much but provided little.

It was late coming, much too late for an all-around successful season, but the Eskymos have developed a fine team spirit. The spark was ignited in the third quarter of the Iron Mountain game. It was fanned into a flame against Marquette, and by tomorrow afternoon it should be a blaze.

Without discounting the capabilities of a fine team of Gladstone Braves, undefeated in three seasons of play, we nevertheless cast a vote in favor of the Escanaba Eskymos in tomorrow's classic. The Braves will score, but Eskymo weight and fight will wear them down. Escanaba 19, Gladstone 13.

The other toughie on this week's card is Wakefield at Bessemer. That could go either way, but Bessemer has a slight edge in having faced stiffer opposition this season. Their records are identical but Bessemer is a bit more rugged. From our ivory tower at Ludington and Sixth, it looks like Bessemer 13, Wakefield 6.

St. Joseph at Stephenson this afternoon: Clarence Needham wasn't kidding when he said yesterday that we've probably been looking for him all week after that loss to Munising. But against Stephenson today, the St. Joe Trojans look like a winner. The Steves won't score, but they'll scrap 'till the cows come home. St. Joe 15, Stephenson 6.

Alpena at Sault Ste. Marie: Tough way for the Soo Blue Devils to end the season. Alpena 27, Soo 6.

Kingsford at Iron Mountain: The Mountaineers are still bothered with nightmares about Kopsenski's foot. Iron River's secret weapon that beat them, 3-0, last Saturday. But they'll be out of the fog by Saturday afternoon. Against Kingsford's vaunted line but weak backfield, the Mountaineers will win handily. Iron Mountain 20, Kingsford 0.

Marquette at Two Rivers: The Marquette Marines can whip Wisconsin teams as well as Upper Peninsula elevens. Marquette 21, Two Rivers 6.

Secret's Out! Like U-M, Penn State's Power in Numbers

State College, Pa., Oct. 31 (P)—Coach Bob Higgins admits its old bromide but there's no other way of explaining Penn State's unbeaten football team than to say it's team play.

Higgins has only to point at the statistics and he leaves very little room for argument as the Nittany Lions try to make Colgate their sixth straight victim Saturday.

The records show this:

1. A second string fullback is the leading ground gainer.
2. A reserve wingback tops the scorers.
3. The team is first among collegiate football teams defensively having allowed but 49 yards per game in five contests.
4. The team is first in rushing nationally and second only to Michigan in total offense.
5. Very few of the first stringers have seen on the average of more than two periods of action so far this season.

The strength of Penn State lies in numbers.

Minor Ball Loops Set New All-Time Attendance Marks

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 31 (P)—Baseball's 52 minor leagues set a new all-time attendance high during 1947 when 41,516,736 fans watched their games. Of this total 40,274,256 were paid admissions and the remainder were guests of the clubs.

As the major leagues drew an unofficial total of 19,576,358 paid, the total for organized ball exceeded 61,000,000 or almost half of the entire population.

The minor league totals, announced today by George M. Trautman, president of the National Association, far exceeded the previous high turnstile mark of 32,704,315 established last year.

Communication

The Big Game

Sports Editor Escanaba Press:

Working people like to see our high school team play football too, but there is nothing said to date about Escanaba stores closing for a half day Saturday so employees can see the game played. Gladstone has already taken action on this matter, according to an article in the Press. I personally have followed the high school team both in and out of town; I think it's a shame that they do not get more support. If we had a lighted field more people would have the opportunity to attend. Last year there was some comments in the Press about a lighted field. I think this should be accomplished.

All-Time College Grid Marks Likely

New York, Oct. 31 (P)—College football in the Middle West, if it continues at its present pace, will set three all-time records this year—in scoring, in yardage and in forward passing efficiency.

This conclusion was reached today by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau after analyzing a load of boxcar figures from 1,259 football games reported from coast to coast during the first half of the current season.

Barney Poole is the fastest end on the Mississippi squad, despite his six-13-E shoes.
